

IVYWOOD CLASSICAL ACADEMY

IVYWOOD CLASSICAL ACADEMY HONOR CODE

Ivywood Classical Academy students strive to be virtuous in conduct, seek to grow in scholarship and learning, and pursue a commitment toward civic responsibility. Ivywood Classical Academy students will not lie, cheat, or steal, and will discourage others from such actions.

Understanding the Code

Ivywood Classical Academy was founded to develop students in both mind and character. The school's virtues are the guiding principles used to cultivate and nurture character: courage, respect, excellence, integrity, humility, self-government, and wonder. Students are expected to conduct themselves honorably in word and deed, to strive to live by the virtues, and to encourage others to do so as well.

COURAGE - I take action even when I am scared.

RESPECT - I see the inherent value in others.

EXCELLENCE - I deliver my personal best.

INTEGRITY - I do the right thing even when no one is watching.

HUMILITY - I serve others before serving myself.

SELF GOVERNMENT - I use self-control in my actions.

WONDER - I have a thirst for knowledge. I am amazed by and open to all that life has to offer.

Ivywood Classical Academy students will not lie, cheat, or steal—and will discourage others from doing so.

Guided by faculty, staff, and parents, students should seek to exhibit the school's virtues and live by the school motto: "I will desire the truth, I will do the good, and I will love the beautiful."
